POSSOM HOLLER

(LEVEL GREEN.)

The weather iz az chaigable az sun peepils Polly Tix iz, and keeps me a feelin az bad, and i can jest about as well tell where the wind comes from and why the temperature changes so suddenly az i can account for the political currents ov sum men. I would love for some one who iz well up on general topics some office seeker to define Polly Tix fur me. I investigated the matter to a limited extent the tother day in Possom Holler; and here iz the result: A Sed it meant the Sience ov government, B Sed it were not a Sience but it were an art, C sid it were a man's best interest regardless ov other men's rights or intrusts, D sed it iz tradition like religren or beleaf in goastes & witches but the father haz more to do in shapin it generally than the mammy does, E said it iz the thing, mixed with a little bad whisky and money, that elects men to office, F sed it were that thing which when changed that made a d—n rebel a saint and give him a fat job under the government ov Mr. Hanner. G sed polly tix were what big men quarrel over and little men quarrel about and fools fite over. G said it were the very thing that most men know but little about, H said it iz that thing which iz best tcken, like Dr's. medicines, in broaken doses and miles apart; I sid, "i dont know a blamed thing about it an care a big site less." So with all these correct but conflicting definitions before me my brain's (if i hav enny) whized round in my skull like an bumble bee under a glass tumbler and my bristles stood on eend, and I looked "burry head" sure enough wounde if "sorry hall" can define it? Betsy, good ole sould, saw me and while in this condition and she thought grip or night hoss was kicken or squeezin me agin, so she shook me and applied one ov her favorite prescriptions & i got better but every time i hear Polly tix mentioned a cold tremor runs up and down my spinal colum (back bone) and i hav to take quinine to stop the chills. But Say Buck, if polly tix air sich a boogger why air you running for Supt of schules? Simply because i want the office and i want to beat them fellers that's runnin fur it,—& i will too— and there aint no polly tix in this orifice no how, but ef they (my opponents) want to mix up polly tix with our race they must just define the word satisfactolny. Now i think i hav rit enuff fur i time.

Betsy is improving slowly.

Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. The Crab Orchard Band serenaded Mr. Isaac Herrin Tuesday night, on account of his nomination for jailer. There was many calls for a speech from Mr. Herrin. He declined to make a speech then, but promised the boys that if he was successful in November to call again and then he would make them a speech.

It is not so much what the newspapers say, as what neighbor says to neighbor, or friend to friend, that has brought Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy into such general use. It is as natural for people to express their gratitude after using this remedy as it is for water to flow down hill. It is the one remedy that can always be depended upon, whether a baby be sick with cholera infantum or a man with cholera morbus. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. Have you a bottle of it in your home? For sale by Theo Wesley Druggist.

Rheumatism.

Nobody knows all about it; and nothing, now known, will always cure it.

Doctors try Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, when they think it is caused by imperfect digestion of food. You can do the same.

It may or may not be caused by the failure of stomach and bowels to do their work. If it is, you will cure it; if not, you will do no harm.

The way, to cure a disease is to stop its cause, and help the body get back to its habit of health.

When Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil does that, it cures; when it don't, it don't cure. It never does harm.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other.
If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce Chesley Payne,
as a candidate for Magistrate in the Fourth district, subject to the action of the Republican party.

SOME weeks ago this paper had an occasion to refer to the Powers' edition of that yellow journal, the Barbourville Pathfinder, to which its editors have seen fit to respond in such a way as to indicate clearly what we already believed that they were neither editors nor gentlemen. Our esteemed contemporaries do us much honor. In their great desire and attempt to abuse the editor of this paper, their abuse whips over on our side and becomes unintentional praise. The editors of that yellow sheet should bear in mind that abuse of Judges, jurors and editors is not argument; neither is contempt for them a just and proper criticism, and reasonable people, like those in Knox county, will have no respect for any journal that fills its columns full of false accusations, vile slander and such loud-mouth rot. The Pathfinder is another convincing argument that many a man calls himself editor with a big E, that God intended should dig coal, break rock or carry out the slop-tubs at some 2x4 hotel.

JUDGE JAS. D. BLACK is being talked of again as a candidate for Governor two years hence. There is no Democrat in Kentucky who is held in higher esteem by his party and by the people generally. For a number of years Judge Black has given unstintingly of his time and means for the success of his party, and last year when he failed to secure the nomination he did not sulk at home, but threw himself into the canvass with the same enthusiasm and vigor that he would have shown had he been the nominee. Judge Black has a strong following in this section of the State which would be glad to see him get the nomination—Danville News.

We say Black for Governor two years hence.

We are informed by Republicans, whom we know to be truthful that, certain postmasters in this county have attempted to get them to stop taking the Signal. When these subscribers call for their papers at the office, the postmaster hands out the Signal and says: "why don't you stop that thing." We desire to treat the people of this county fairly. We are weekly making local mentions of republicans as well as democrats. We are striving to build up our county and make an honest living for ourselves. However, if this kind of tactics do not cease, some postmasters will find themselves in the middle of a bad fix one of these days and the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General will be looking for others to take their places. A word to the wise is sufficient.

RUSSIA defies the world and says no interference with plans regarding Manchuria, will be permitted. This action on the part of Russia is a direct defiance of the British government, in so much, that it has been the foremost nation in trying to secure united action on the part of the other powers to prevent Russian control over Manchuria. With Russian control there would probably be a partition of the Chinese Empire and Great Britain, yet England with what she has on her hands, in South Africa has to stand and take it.

It is understood on high authority that the President has decided to appoint Mr. P. C. Knox, of Pittsburgh, to the vacancy in his cabinet, that will be caused by the retirement of Attorney General G. Iggs on April 1st. Mr. Knox is owned body, soul and mind, by the trusts.

To the nominees of Lincoln, Greeting! We congratulate you all. And now with sleeves rolled above the elbows, with courage and determination up, and enthusiasm high, let the battle be waged and let the motto be—victory in November.

MESSRS. SAPP AND BARNETT may not control the Republican party, but we would like to know, who controls the Evening Post? The Post is like a paper gun wad, shoot it in the air and the way the current is strongest there it goes.

MAJOR E. W. LILLARD, of Danville, has withdrawn from the race for Senator and become editor and manager of that splendid paper, The Danville News. This brainy gentleman will add much strength to this already growing Journal.

The editor, of the Letchfield Eagle no doubt wished that he had never been born, against he got through reading Mr. Watterson's editorial of last Wednesday.

W. P. WALTON for railroad commissioner and James B. McCreary U. S. Senator, and "all will be well" with us.

HERE is wishing that the ermine of the new Federal Judgeship will fall upon ex Gov. William O'Connell Bradley.

ORLANDO

The fishing time is now here.

Rollie Mullins has given up his job on the railroad and gone to farming.

Mr. Sam Reams and Miss Ida Helton were married yesterday morning. We all extend to them our best wishes and hope their days of happiness and prosperity may be many, and the reverses, which one meets along life's road, may be few and far between.

Leo Anderson has about recovered from measles and will return to his work at Paris in the near future.

Henry Mullin, our candidate for jailer, is now actively engaged in his canvass and says he is meeting with much encouragement.

Frank Anderson, who has been sick, is again out with his mill.

Dr. W. J. Childress and wife spent Sunday with friends here.

Geo. Evans has given up his job with the coal Co., and is now working with the Kentucky Stone Co., at Langford.

Quite a number of our citizens attended church at Langford Sunday last.

John Robinson has built a house and expects to build a barn, and B. H. Ball has a new barn and is preparing to build a new house.

W. I. Dooley and family spent Sunday with G. T. Johnson.

A Railroad.—Yes it is understood that on the 27th., picks and shovels will be used, carts and wheelbarrows put in line, and if this happens, we, the great common people, will know we have a Boom, but not before. The fever has not spread very rapidly so far. The same crowd pitches horse shoes, and checker players still study the board, and slowly shove man after man toward the king row. And some have even dared to commence farming. To these we wish to speak words of good cheer, for this work should not stop farm work and let farms depreciate in value. So I predict, that the man who works on his farm and lets the other fellow work on the railroad, will come out best when they are all checked up next winter.

Lincoln county Democrats nominated a ticket Saturday, which looks very much like winners. Everything passed off quietly all over the county, and while some of the candidates, no doubt feel a little disappointed, yet, none are in the least sore over their defeat, but all ready and willing to go to work to help swell the majority in November. The following is the ticket nominated: For Representative, Hon. M. F. North; County Judge, Jas. P. Bailey; Sheriff, M. S. Baughman; Assessor, M. G. Reynolds; Jailor, Ike Herrin; School Superintendent, Garland Singleton; County Clerk, G. B. Cooper; County Attorney, Harvey Helm. Mr. Helm had no opposition.

COLLEGE NOTES.

The College is astir with preparations for the coming Commencement season. Much enthusiasm is shown by the pupils, and three plays—two quite short ones, and one long one—have been selected; also, a cantata for the little folks, is under headway, and the zeal of the children know no limit in their study and practice. The music class is preparing a very extensive program of piano, violin, vocal and guitar music. Altogether, we are hoping to have one of the best commencement programs our College has ever had. Should the present interest continue, and we think it will, we are very sure of a most satisfactory series of entertainments.

There will be four entertainments in this series; the first will be of a wholly literary character; the second, in charge of the Primary department; then the Music department, and last, the regular graduation exercises.

The Normal Department will continue a month or six weeks longer.

LIVINGSTON.

With each visit to the town of Livingston, we see additional improvements. It is certainly a pleasure to any citizen of our county, who has any interest in improvement, to visit this little town and note the rapid strides, which its enterprising citizens are making. The very manner and way the people move about, when at their business or on the streets, show conclusively to the looker on, that they mean business. It would be surprising to any one, who has never visited this thriving little town. Just watch the merchants there on Saturday, especially, and see what an enormous amount of business they do. It would make the merchants, in many of the larger towns of Kentucky open their eyes, and wonder if they were selling any goods at all. The firm of Ward & Magee have from two to three clerks and then are hardly able to wait upon their trade. Frank Jones, who has until recently been doing business in the R. C. Wade stand, but now in the W. S. Cummins store room is selling goods in endless quantities and growing in favor with the people with each day. Bowman & Cockrel do a big business, however they devote most of their time to the lumber business, being operators of a big saw mill and one of the best planing mills in Eastern Ky. Fields & Browning is a new firm just started up, and will no doubt before many months have passed, have a splendid trade. T. D. Mullins carries a good stock and while he does not devote his entire time to the mercantile business, yet he enjoys a good portion of the patronage. J. A. Mullins & Son can furnish you any thing you want in furniture, which can not be equaled in prices anywhere, besides also carrying a nice line of groceries. John Farmer can furnish you nice, fresh groceries at very low figures, and Jake Sam-brooks, near the railroad gets a splendid trade. Livingston has one drug store and with "Parson" Hocker, behind the case you can rest assured that prescription, will be properly filled. There are two good butcher shops, one run by J. C. Rineheart, the other by W. T. Monk, and each enjoy a good trade. There are three hotels, the Eight Goble, run by G. W. Pope, the River Mansion, by W. R. Dillion and the Mullins House by John Farmer, and at either place the wants of the hungry can always be thoroughly satisfied. At Shannon McKenney's barber shop, you can always get an up-to-date hair cut and an easy shave. There are only two physicians Drs. Cooper and Childress and when they fail, it is useless to seek relief elsewhere. Dr. Lucas is the only dentist and has proved himself long since a good one. Capt. B. N. Roller, Train Master, Capt. A. N. Bently, Yard Master, Thos Farley, Yard Master at night and L. M. Westfield chief train dispatcher have control of the L. & N. business and with the assistance of such trusty and faithful employees, as Brack Grave, David Griffin, G. D. Cook, George Reynold, W. H. Cottengim, Dave Preston, George McCarthy, George Doss, J. R. Orndoff, J. A. Mudd, W. T. Merimee, C. A. Moore and J. Y. Brown etc., every thing moves like clock works. The last but not least are the city officials. Dock Calloway, Ab Sparks and Dr. Lucas, the board of trustees, make the laws; Judge W. P. Raines, the splendid Police Judge sees that they are carried into effect and J. J. Clancy, the Marshal readily executes all papers placed in his hands.

Rineheart, the other by W. T. Monk, and each enjoy a good trade. There are three hotels, the Eight Goble, run by G. W. Pope, the River Mansion, by W. R. Dillion and the Mullins House by John Farmer, and at either place the wants of the hungry can always be thoroughly satisfied. At Shannon McKenney's barber shop, you can always get an up-to-date hair cut and an easy shave. There are only two physicians Drs. Cooper and Childress and when they fail, it is useless to seek relief elsewhere. Dr. Lucas is the only dentist and has proved himself long since a good one. Capt. B. N. Roller, Train Master, Capt. A. N. Bently, Yard Master, Thos Farley, Yard Master at night and L. M. Westfield chief train dispatcher have control of the L. & N. business and with the assistance of such trusty and faithful employees, as Brack Grave, David Griffin, G. D. Cook, George Reynold, W. H. Cottengim, Dave Preston, George McCarthy, George Doss, J. R. Orndoff, J. A. Mudd, W. T. Merimee, C. A. Moore and J. Y. Brown etc., every thing moves like clock works. The last but not least are the city officials. Dock Calloway, Ab Sparks and Dr. Lucas, the board of trustees, make the laws; Judge W. P. Raines, the splendid Police Judge sees that they are carried into effect and J. J. Clancy, the Marshal readily executes all papers placed in his hands.

With each visit to the town of Livingston, we see additional improvements. It is certainly a pleasure to any citizen of our county, who has any interest in improvement, to visit this little town and note the rapid strides, which its enterprising citizens are making. The very manner and way the people move about, when at their business or on the streets, show conclusively to the looker on, that they mean business. It would be surprising to any one, who has never visited this thriving little town. Just watch the merchants there on Saturday, especially, and see what an enormous amount of business they do. It would make the merchants, in many of the larger towns of Kentucky open their eyes, and wonder if they were selling any goods at all. The firm of Ward & Magee have from two to three clerks and then are hardly able to wait upon their trade. Frank Jones, who has until recently been doing business in the R. C. Wade stand, but now in the W. S. Cummins store room is selling goods in endless quantities and growing in favor with the people with each day. Bowman & Cockrel do a big business, however they devote most of their time to the lumber business, being operators of a big saw mill and one of the best planing mills in Eastern Ky. Fields & Browning is a new firm just started up, and will no doubt before many months have passed, have a splendid trade. T. D. Mullins carries a good stock and while he does not devote his entire time to the mercantile business, yet he enjoys a good portion of the patronage. J. A. Mullins & Son can furnish you any thing you want in furniture, which can not be equaled in prices anywhere, besides also carrying a nice line of groceries. John Farmer can furnish you nice, fresh groceries at very low figures, and Jake Sam-brooks, near the railroad gets a splendid trade. Livingston has one drug store and with "Parson" Hocker, behind the case you can rest assured that prescription, will be properly filled. There are two good butcher shops, one run by J. C. Rineheart, the other by W. T. Monk, and each enjoy a good trade. There are three hotels, the Eight Goble, run by G. W. Pope, the River Mansion, by W. R. ### Young Women

The entry into womanhood is a critical time for a girl. Little menstrual disorders started at that time soon grow into fatal complications. That female troubles are filling graveyards proves this. Wine of Cardui establishes a painless and natural menstrual flow. When once this important function is started right, a healthy life will usually follow. Many women, young and old, owe their lives to Wine of Cardui. There is nothing like it to give women freedom from pain and to fit young women for every duty of life. $1.00 bottles at druggists.

Miss Della M. Strayer, Tully, Kan.: "I have suffered untold pain at menstrual periods for a long time, was nervous, had no appetite, and lost interest in everything, in fact was miserable. I have taken four bottles of Wine of Cardui, with Theodor's Black-Draught, when needed, and to-day I am entirely cured. I cannot express the thanks I feel for what you have done for me."
